

Palmerston North

Remembrance Day 2024

Monday 11 November, 11am
The Cenotaph, Te Marae o Hine - The Square

10.45am Assembly and march-on

All veterans and serving personnel are to form up at the Palmerston North isite and report to the Parade Commander, Major Mike Pettersen, MNZM, RNZE, for a short march to the Cenotaph (medals and berets/head wear as appropriate). All VIPs are to be seated and hold their wreaths.

11am Service and introduction

The opening of the service will be conducted by the Master of Ceremonies, Lieutenant Colonel (Rtd) Joe Hollander, RNZE (PNRSA and PNDHAG). The service will be signed by Sarah Billing.

Formal welcome

Wiremu Te Awe Awe, Rangitāne.

His Worship the Mayor of Palmerston North, Grant Smith.

Service address

Colonel Ben Bagley, Commander, 1st (New Zealand) Brigade.

Youth address

Liorah Jainarain, International Student - University of South Africa (4th year) and Palmerston North Youth Council.

Ataturk address

COL (Rtd) Prof Mesut Uyar, PhD, PD Professor Military History, UNSW, Canberra.

The Lesson and Prayer for the Fallen

Chaplain Elijah Peters, RNZChD.

Laying of wreaths

The laying of the wreaths is a symbolic remembrance act to show respect to those who have fallen, and for those who have served. Wreath layers will be called forward in groups by Councillor Mark Arnott - Palmerston North City Council.

The Lament

Piper - Jim Farley, Pipes and Drums of Palmerston North.

The Ode Please stand

Te Reo Corporal Robin Edgecumbe, NZCF.

English Wing Commander Peter Hurly, DSD, RNZAF (PNRSA).

NZSL Annette Hansen, Deaf Aotearoa.

The Last Post Remain standing

Bugler - Corporal Tim Cook, New Zealand Army Band Reserve.

One minute's silence

Reveille Remain standing

Bugler - Corporal Tim Cook, New Zealand Army Band Reserve.

New Zealand National Anthem Remain standing

Supported by Bella and the Fellas from Freyberg High School.

E Ihowā Atua, O ngā iwi mātou rā,	God of Nations at Thy feet, In the bonds of love we meet,
Āta whakarangona; Me aroha noa	Hear our voices, we entreat, God defend our free land.
Kia hua ko te pai; Kia tau tō atawhai;	Guard Pacific's triple star, From the shafts of strife and war,
Manaakitia mai, Aotearoa	Make her praises heard afar, God defend New Zealand.

Please be seated

Thank you and closure of service

Lieutenant Colonel (Rtd) Joe Hollander, RNZE (PNRSA and PNDHAG).

Immediately following the service

Please join us for the launch and presentation of the Poppy Places streets of significance, and refreshments at the Palmy Conference and Function Centre, 354 Main Street.

Thanks to all of those involved for their assistance in this Remembrance Day service.

Memory, remembrance and amnesia of the Gallipoli Campaign in Turkey

Monday 11 November, 5:45pm - 7:00pm
Central Library, Ground Floor

Guest speaker COL (Rtd) Mesut Uyar PhD, PD
Professor of Military History,
Fellow, School of Humanities and Social Sciences,
University of New South Wales, Canberra, Australia.

PALMY
CITY
LIBRARY

